51. KATHY STANLEY is a Jamaican-born artist living on the US West Coast. A visionary artist and ecopsychology educator, her acrylic paintings reflect meditative inner journeys of exploring the ecological self. She gravitates towards images that celebrate earth, the rising feminine spirit and invoke wholeness, joy and aliveness. Shown is 'Archangel'. Connect with her at SacredArtJourneys.com and follow @kstanleyart on Instagram.

52. ROSE BASILE describes herself as an expressionist artist, painting (mostly) natural subjects using realistic elements and adding an expressive quality with vibrant colour, loose brushstrokes and depth to evoke positive emotional responses. Art to soothe the soul. She is currently dabbling in abstraction to further develop her expressionist work. Visit her page bluehumb.com.au/rose-basile or her website, rosebasileart.com.au/shop and follow @rosebasileart on Instagram.

53. ELENA KIANNU is a Finnish artist and designer who is currently living in Belgium. Her decorative style of work is influenced by graphical illustrations. One of her prominent collections "Botanical Garden" depicts the beauty of nature in its richness of colours and details. For more of her work, visit her shop Artkiannu on Etsy or follow @art.kiannu on Instagram.

54. MICHAELA KRAUSHAAR is a German artist from Munich. She studied design and abstract art at Mathildenhöhe University in Darmstadt. Colour is her language. Michaela was inspired when she heard that dolphins were back in Venice, Italy due to there not being any tourists around during the pandemic. The piece depicts dolphins joyfully dancing. Visit www.michaelakraushaar.art and @michaelakraushaar.ar on Instagram.

55. CLAIRE STAPLETON is a self-taught, New Zealand born artist based in Sydney, Australia. Her work is inspired by the human form and connections we have with each other. And, with only 3 years in her practice, you'll already find Stapleton's signature style hanging in private homes and businesses around the world. Visit www.byclairstapleton.com and follow @byclairstapleton on Instagram.

56. JANET WHITCHURCH lives in California, her landscapes explore the beauty of the area. She works on paper: drawing and painting with watercolour. Her interests have taken her elsewhere as a visiting artist at the American Academy in Rome and to projects involving aspects of horse racing in Newmarket and California. Visit www.janetwhitchurch.com to find out more.

57. MICHAEL HOURIGAN enjoys the challenge of creating pieces that achieve an elusive, precarious state of balanced imbalance, flat depth and complementary contrast. His paintings are a representation of his interest in colour, linework and geometry. Visit michaelhouriganart.com or search @michaelhouriganart on Instagram.

58. BRIANNE HAYMON is a self-taught spiritual abstract artist, born and raised in West Palm Beach, Florida. Her inspiration stems from visions, dreams, and spiritual tools. Paintings like 'Monarch' are birthed on canvas to capture her raw emotion and expression. View her work at Sagesagittariusart.com or follow @sagesagittarius_94 on Instagram.

59. RUOTI ART & DESIGN was created based on the desire to combine creative thinking and scientific information. Founder of the company Maria Ruoti is a visual artist, researcher of law, and theologian. Materials used in commission work are of excellent quality, ecological and mostly crafted in Finland. The company donates 3% of it's profit to Naisten Pankki, an organisation that supports the development, entrepreneurship and equality of women in Asia, Africa and Middle East. Visit ruotiartdesign.com and follow @ruotiartdesign on Instagram.

60. AMADORA is a UK artist based in Sheffield, who creates realistic cityscape and street scene paintings, as well as abstract pieces which focus on colour and texture. Her work consists of two styles as she loves the contrast of freedom and expression with abstract pieces, against the detail and narrative nature of realism. This has allowed her to create a diverse portfolio, inspired by the environment around her- whether that's the vibrancy of city life, or capturing the natural elements surrounding us. Visit www.artbyamadora.com or follow @amadora.art on Instagram.

61. SUSAN LIZOTTE, Los Angeles based contemporary artist, has exhibited her works both in the US and internationally. Creating landscape works, abstract maps and dramatic artworks of Los Angeles, her pieces flow and unfold themselves. Explore her varied collections online at www.susanlizotte.com and follow @susanlizotte on Instagram.

62. EILEEN SCHECHTER TICHAUER has always been inspired by her urban surroundings, her life experiences and her dreams. The paintings she creates are a kaleidoscope of patterns using the playfulness of colour and shape. Eileen's work is painted freehand and will be on exhibit at Brick Lane Gallery, London, 10th-23rd May 2022. Visit www.eileentichauer.com follow @eileentichauer on Instagram or email eileen@tichauer.com to find out more.

63. KATHARINA ROCHAT is Swiss and lives in the Zurich area. Katharina's art work is especially influenced by water worlds and natural beauty. It matters to her to create works that touch the heart. With light and play of colours she enables the viewer to dive into a space with harmony and atmosphere. Visit www.katharinas-art.ch or email kathy.rochat@bluewin.ch to find out more.

64. SUZANNE LAGO ARTHUR is an American realist oil painter living in the Washington DC area. Her work is about longing, transience, memory and beauty. Subjects include award winning portraits, paintings of domestic scenes and floral still lifes. "Abby in Contemplation", (pictured) is available at www.lagoarthurstudio.com email Suzanne@lagoarthurstudio.com and follow @LagoArthurStudio on Instagram or LagoArthurArt on Twitter.

65. HANNE MESSER is an independent artist from Germany's Rhine-Main area. She draws her inspiration from art, French and Dutch interior design and antiques. Her works range from floral and portrait paintings in oil and acrylic, to clay sculptures. Hanne also offers painting and sculpting classes in her intimate studio near Mainz. For more information, visit hanne-messer.de and follow @hanne.messer on Instagram.

66. JULIET WEST is inspired by the beauty of the Dorset coastline, her stunning mixed media canvases capture the landscape in both abstract and representational ways. She uses metal leaf and 3D texture, making her paintings tactile objects as well as beautiful images. Visit www.julietwestartist.com and follow @julietwestartist on Instagram.

67. DIANA KRINNINGER is a German artist who creates vivid compositions connected to landscapes and still life painting, producing abstract works that express an architectural sense. Each piece captures an experimental, emotive and energetic approach. Visit www.dianakrinninger.com and follow @diana_krinninger on Instagram.
