19. Tanya of STEWART ART STUDIO is a Canadian oil painter and photographer, with a love for all things nature and cultural exploration. This alchemy is inspired by her affliction with biophilia and translated onto canvas or through her lens in her West Coast art studio, located in Squamish, British Columbia. Visit www.stewartartstudio.com and follow @stewartartstudio on Instagram.

20. CHARLOTTE SUTTON is a Somerset born, London based artist creating photorealistic paintings of nature and wildlife. A graduate of Central Saint Martins with a unique eye for beauty and detail, her paintings capture the intricacies of life. Visit www.charlottesutton.com and follow @charlottesuttonstudio on Instagram.

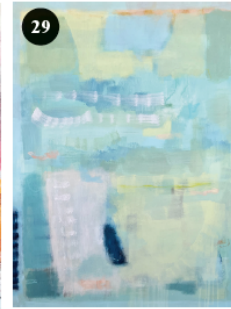

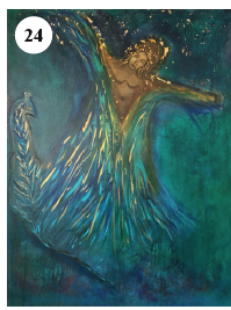

21. ELIZABETH MARIN is a contemporary artist based in Charleston, South Carolina. Her paintings employ an impressionistic style that mirror the beauty and imperfection of nature. Her year-long painting series 'magnolias' is an ode to the chaotic composition and subtle vibrancy found in blooming magnolia trees. See the collection by visiting elizabethmarinart.com and follow @elizabethmarinart on Instagram.

22. ISKRA JOHNSON's distinctive calligraphic art blends mark making and painting in works of elegant contemporary abstraction. She exhibits at the Seattle Art Museum Gallery and is available for commissions for homes and public spaces. Other subjects include botanical, industrial, and architectural. Find her work @iskrafineart on Instagram, visit iskrafineart.com and connect at iskra@iskrafineart.com

23. MAZARINE MEMON is a neo-impressionist painter living in Toronto, Canada. Mazarine believes art must challenge the viewer to think differently. Her work which was once called 'mysteries in colour' by a collector, challenges the viewer to decipher the mystery within the painting. The push and pull of realism versus abstract is quite apparent in her fine art collection. Visit www.mazarinememon.com and follow @mazarinememon on Instagram.

24. KATHY STANLEY is a Jamaican-born artist living on the US West Coast. A visionary artist and ecopsychology educator, her acrylic paintings reflect meditative inner journeys of exploring the ecological self. She gravitates towards images that celebrate earth, the rising feminine spirit and invoke wholeness, joy and aliveness. Shown is 'Spirit of Xaymaca' 24" x 30", acrylic painting. Connect with her at SacredArtJourneys.com and follow @kstanleyart on Instagram.

25. GABRIELLA JOHNSON is an artist and maker of eclectic practice. Memorabilia Boards are her assemblage works of collected treasures, from antique to modern, in one colour scheme, appreciating the many hues of a single colour. Squares of carefully curated history always tightly arranged like a puzzle, conveying the large scales of consumption and production as created by humans, and lots of nostalgia too. Presented on 10x10cm canvas panel, encased and secured inside a box frame. Each Memorabilia Board contains over fifty items within a seemingly impossible surface mass. Visit www.gabriellajohnsonartist.com and follow @gabriellajohnsonart on Instagram.

26. American watercolourist, painting instructor, art blogger and author BIVENNE STAIGER is known for her stunning flower and wildlife paintings. A recipient of many prestigious awards for her work, Bivenne places a focus on light. Visit www.bivennefineart.com

27. ZAREFA AZEJI – her works are energetic and poetic. The signature mark making techniques are always visible in all aspects of work. She aims to provide visual elements from contemporary culture and everyday life that surround her whilst working in London. To see more of her minimal, contemporary and occasional natural landscapes, visit www.jvqxx.com or follow @jvqxx.art on Instagram.

28. ULRIKE GAISER is a German painter who is inspired by nature both in terms of colour and surface design. With different materials such as sand, stone powder, paper, pigments, ash or rust, Ulrike Gaiser creates a variety of structures that change and enliven the picture surface and create new levels. To discover more of her work, visit kunstwerk-oberursel.de and follow @ulrikegaiserart on Instagram.

29. KARI NICOLE is an abstract artist and professional football player living in the heart of Scandinavia. Her works are inspired by the natural beauty of places she's lived, including Hawaii, Chicago, Norway, and Sweden. Kari's pieces have homes in Australia, Europe, and North America. Visit www.karinicolestudio.com and follow @karinicolestudio on Instagram.

30. GLORY is an emerging self-taught artist who enjoys creating art to bring hope and encouragement to others! Her art is inspired by her Christian beliefs. Featured here is her latest work "Blossom". You can view all her artwork at www.glorypropheticart.com or follow @glorypropheticart on Instagram.

31. Los Angeles based contemporary artist, SUSAN LIZOTTE, has exhibited her works both in the US and internationally. Creating landscape works, abstract maps and dramatic artworks of Los Angeles, her pieces flow and unfold themselves. Explore her varied collections online at www.susanlizotte.com and follow @susanlizotte on Instagram.

32. KERRY BROAD is an expressionist artist based in the glorious Staffordshire Moorlands Peak District. Kerry takes her inspiration from the ever changing environment around her, the light and energy of nature. Kerry's spiritual background creates a vibrant and colourful energy which she incorporates in her layers of acrylics and mixed media. Pictured is "Multifaceted", 12" x 12" mixed media. Kerry can be found @kerry_broad_artist on Instagram or visit kerrybroadart.com

33. MARGARET HARRIS is an American painter who commits her days to working as a full time artist in her studio. Her art is cultivated by a nostalgia for landscapes and abstract depictions of a serene flowing feeling which have become the foundation of her painted spaces today. Margaret's work is influenced by her love of the sky, water and clouds. Her mixed media work on canvas capture her inspirations in both abstract and representational ways. Visit www.margaretharrisart.com and follow @margaretharrisart on Instagram and @MargaretHarrisArt on Facebook.
