1. British artist LUCY GLENISTER-WILSON-STOREY creates mesmerising art in antique frames. Best known for glowing gold paintings with symbolic designs and abstract figures. Based just outside of London, Lucy's work sells all over the world as well as being displayed in the iconic Harrods. See more of her work at www.storeybystorey.com and on Instagram @storeybystorey

2. LOUISE KNOWLES is a painter who is all about colour, texture and negative space. In this latest body of work she is concentrating on the energy around the conversations she has with paint and form. Making marks that allow the audience to see through the layers and find answers. Her work will be presented at the Brick Lane Gallery in June 2022. Visit louiseknowles.com or Instagram @louiseknowles.art for more information.

3. DAVID PHER is an abstract artist and Musician based in Berlin, Germany. He uses a range of mediums including acrylics, coal, oil pastels and pens to create his striking, colourful pieces. Featured is "Jungle Rosé" 150x150cms mixed media on canvas. Shop his full collection at www.david-pher.com and follow @david_pher on Instagram.

4. BRIAN ESCH is a German based contemporary artist with roots in the U.S. His figurative acrylic paintings are well known in social media and in private collections all over Germany. Brian is currently taking the international crowd with the launch of his online shop. Featured is "Firefly" acrylic on canvas. Explore his varied artworks at www.brianesch.com and follow him at @brianesch Instagram.

5. Scottish artist and graduate of the Glasgow School of Art KATRINA HOWARTH intertwines a whimsical play with light. She creates happy, peaceful works all in oils. 'Blue figs and tea', 'poppy' and 'vanilla sky' are a few of the delightful paintings found in her joyous collections. Find out more at katrinahowarth.com

6. Australian artist, Brittany Afif, creates beautiful original contemporary artworks capturing a wide range of motifs. Brittany is the founder of the online art gallery, AJ LAWSON, where she showcases her own artwork along with many other Australian artists' masterpieces. Brittany loves to focus on abstract techniques, including textured paintings, using acrylics and a variety of tools to create her one-of-a-kind pieces. Explore her original works and shop online at www.ajlawson.com.au and on Instagram @a_j_lawson. Seen here is original bespoke commission "Bright Light" 140cm x 100cm.

7. CYNTHIA WELCH is a Canadian painter who uses acrylics as her medium and popular music to inspire her artwork. Her style is characterised by wild brush strokes, bright colour palettes and simple subject matter. She is currently working out of her studio in Cornwall, Ontario. Visit www.cintiniart.com and follow @cintini_art on Instagram.

8. CHRISTIANE AHLERS is an emerging artist from northern Germany. In dark hours, Christiane decided to brighten up her life with powerful and shiny colours. She is a self taught artist that began to paint with acrylic on canvas and various mixed media. Each work is a journey through feelings and thoughts, dreams and reality. Discover her works at www.christianeahlers.de and Instagram @christiane.ahlers_art

9. ALEX HUNT is a Canadian artist well known for her textured florals and signature 'dot' paintings. Her recent collection fuses bold colours and striking florals to create beautifully vibrant and engaging paintings. Alex's artwork has attracted a large variety of collectors from across Canada, the United States and internationally. Alex Hunt is one to watch for 2022 and beyond. Visit alexhuntstudio.com and follow @alexhuntstudio on Instagram.

10. LEAH JUSTYCE is an Australian eco-artist who paints one-of-a-kind pop culture works. Her subjects have a subconscious connection to her healing journey. The use of bold colours and thick lines are her way of relaying energy through representational form. Buy direct from her online gallery LeahJustyceArtGallery.com.au and follow on Instagram @leahjustyceartgallery

11. Contemporary figurative artist ANGELIKA LIALIOS has a Fine Arts and Design background. She creates work in bold and bright colours that is inspired by nature and rural surroundings. Angelika experiences the creation of an artwork as a magical process and aims to bring joy and a meditative mood to its viewers. Selected paintings are available as Gicle' prints. Explore her work at www.angelikalialios.com and follow @angelikalialios on Instagram.

12. MIRIAM COLLOR is an abstract artist based in Düsseldorf, Germany. She feels inspired by many things, such as people, nature and emotions. She finds ideas and inspiration by going through the world with open eyes and an open heart. Pictured here is 'Il Mare', acrylics on canvas. For more information visit her Instagram page @mirjamcollor_art or her website mico-art.com

13. CAROLINA DEL PILAR is an artist whose drawings play with light, shadows, spaces, and dreams—using chalk, charcoal, and paper. Her interest in these materials explores symbolism, our relationship to time, and informational content, materialising moments and evoking deep emotional responses. Works available on Maggio Art Consultancy. Visit www.carolinadelpilar.com

14. Los Angeles based contemporary artist, SUSAN LIZOTTE, has exhibited her works both in the US and internationally. Creating landscape works, abstract maps and dramatic artworks of Los Angeles, her pieces flow and unfold themselves. Explore her varied collections online at www.susanlizotte.com and Instagram @susanlizotte

15. CHO, HUI-CHIN's works are concerned with a miscellany of incongruous figures, motifs and fragments. They form a narrative that is grotesque but still compelling. Her inquisitive artistic practices are embodied in her introspection and a reflection on humanity, desire, fetish, ambivalence, sadism and obsession. Her works have been exhibited and collected widely including solo shows and biennials in London, Paris, Florence, Rome, Hamburg, Slovenia, Hong Kong, Taipei, Manila, Fukuoka and Tokyo. Visit www.chin.art or Instagram @chohuichin for more information.
