

THE WORLD OF INTERIORS

JANUARY 2023 £4.99

12. RAISA AMBROS has a special passion for colour, which she mixes in an original way to create her captivating abstracts. This piece is entitled 'Laguna Joy'. Her abstracts are rich in details, which playfully open up to an infinite number of interpretations. Ambros has exhibited work internationally, with Solo show in Los Angeles in 2020 and 21 group exhibitions at galleries and art fairs. Her artworks reside in private collections in USA, Europe and Asia. For more information, visit www.raisambros.com or follow @raisa_ambros_art on Instagram.

13. TRISH MITCHELL is a Cape Town-based fine artist, who has found her artistic home in capturing the numinous quality portrayed in the light, form and sublime delicacy of flowers. A lover of beauty, Trish believes that great art expresses itself with poetry and grace through the mastery of all aspects of technique, and it is her great joy to dedicate her life to this pursuit. Visit www.trishmitchellfineartist.com follow @trishmitchellfineartist on Instagram or email trish@trishmitchellfineartist.com to find out more.

14. SWISS ARTIST CLAUDIA MINI is an intuitive abstract painter who is especially interested in pattern. A gifted colourist, she uses a seemingly inexhaustible vocabulary of various lines and shapes. At times, Claudia's monotypes and acrylic paintings have the look of street graffiti, other times, she appears to allude to topographies of imaginary places. Biomorph shapes, cellular structures, and plant life also appear in her work, always transformed in the prism of abstraction. Visit www.claudiamini.com or email info@claudiamini.ch

15. UK ARTIST LOUISE DUGGAN demonstrates an intuitive sense of creativity to distort and reshape her subject matter whilst maintaining a balanced composition. Her canvas swirl with movement as she skilfully takes you on a journey with spontaneous use of acrylics and various mediums to further expand her visual communication. Visit www.louiseduggan.com and follow @louisedugganartist on Instagram.

16. AMY VELDMAN-WILSON is an American artist based in Block Island, off the coast of Rhode Island. Her captivating and colourful works are the result of her observations of nature. From refined details to bold brush strokes we are presented with an artwork that entices us to feel present in the moment and share in the artist's interpretation. Her love and appreciation of birds and the sea become apparent. Amy's work has been exhibited and awarded in David Shepherds Wildlife artist of the year and Leigh Yawkeys annual International Birds in Art exhibition at the Woodson Art Museum. 17. INTERNATIONALLY-AWARDED, VALERIE OSTENAK is an abstract/impressionist painter known for her atmospheric style using gold and silver leaf. Inspired by oceans and water, spectacular skies and flowers, Valerie's work is about transformation, movement, and energetic flow. Seen here is "Breakthrough", 24" x 24". Commissions welcome, to your size. Visit www.valerieostenak.com and follow @vostenakstudios on Instagram.

18. BORN IN A LATHIAN TOWN CLOSE TO A METROPOLIS, DIANA PIGNI has always been fascinated by urban landscapes. Inspired by her travels, she depicts what she observes around the globe with cityscapes being her favourite muse. Visit dianapigniart.com and follow @dianapigniart on Instagram.

19. LOS ANGELES BASED CONTEMPORARY ARTIST, SUSAN LIZOTTE, has exhibited her works both in the US and internationally. Creating landscape works, abstract maps and dramatic artworks of Los Angeles, her pieces flow and unfold themselves. Explore her varied collections online at www.susanlizotte.com and follow @susanlizotte on Instagram.

20. OLIVIA ROSE DURLEY is a British painter specialising in abstract landscapes, seeking to capture the transience of everyday life. Each painting reflects an enigmatic, placeless experience within nature evoking a sense of familiarity yet holding an unidentifiable discomfort. For regular updates on her practice, follow @oliviarose.artist on Instagram or visit www.oliviarosedurley.com

21. GIA SABATINI is an American mixed media abstract artist based in upstate New York. Her work is influenced by music, thoughts and emotions. She uses the textures and colours to entice the viewer closer. The choice of materials allows for a play and juxtaposition that is found throughout the body of work. Visit www.giasabatini.com and follow @giasabatini on Instagram.

22. SARAH SMITH attempts to create playful pieces that magnify the beauty and detail of simple subject matter that might otherwise go unseen or overlooked. Her works display a rather unique and rigid watercolour style brought about by a mix of fine watercolour brush strokes. She likes to draw inspiration from the simplest of creatures, living things or everyday objects in the belief that it is often these little things in life that mean the most to us. Sarah exhibits original artworks in galleries across New South Wales, Australia, and also hosts a collection of watercolour prints available for purchase on her website www.sarahwatercolour.com or follow @sarahsmith__artist on Instagram.
