THE WORLD OF INTERIORS

1. RUOTI ART & DESIGN was created based on the desire to combine creative thinking and scientific information. Founder of the company Maria Ruoti is a visual artist, researcher of law, and theologist. Materials used in commission work are of excellent quality, ecological and mostly crafted in Finland. The company donates 3% of its profit to Naisten Pankki, an organisation that supports the development, entrepreneurship and equality of women in Asia, Africa and Middle East. Visit ruotiartdesign.com and follow @ruotiartdesign on Instagram.

2. Internationally selling artist GABRIELLE (THUNDER) BILL lives between her studios in the Alps and Dorset. Her work focuses on creating a meditative space, being at one with nature. She works mainly on canvas at large scale, using the figure hidden in her paintings as her signature. Visit gabriellebill.co.uk and follow @gabriellecatherinebill on Instagram.

3. TAMARA WASSERMAN's lovely paintings combine lakes and storks of her native Europe, wisdom of the Mediterranean, where she grew up, and the tough, big shoulders of Chicago, where she paints today. Enliven your room with a sense of calm and elegant excitement. Visit www.paperboatart.com email indatoma321@gmail.com and follow @wassermantamara on Instagram.

4. FRANCES CLARKE is a contemporary visual artist who has exhibited nationally and internationally. Her work currently includes two separate but interconnected projects. Using Bio-Well scientific technologies Frances explores the energetic impact of art upon people and the spaces they live in. The Blue Pearl Projects combine her interests in health, well-being, and aesthetic experience. Visit www.francesclarke.co.uk and follow @francesclarke on Instagram.

5. Los Angeles based contemporary artist, SUSAN LIZOTTE, has exhibited her works both in the US and internationally. Creating landscape works, abstract maps and dramatic artworks of Los Angeles, her pieces flow and unfold themselves. Explore her varied collections online at www.susanlizotte.com and follow @susanlizotte on Instagram.

6. HILDE PAPILLON DIELEMAN is a Belgian abstract artist based in the French Riviera. She uses her hands and palette knives to manipulate paint, to create layers, texture and contrast combined with her passion for the incorporation of metallic colours. She creates unique and bespoke pieces. Visit www.hilde-papillon-dieleman.com and follow @hildeabstractart on Instagram.

7. ANNE TEMPLE is a self-taught oil painter based in the coastal town of Norfolk, VA. Her work is described as vibrant yet soothing, colourful, fresh and approachable. Inspiration from everyday life infuses all her various styles and subjects. Her works are available at www.annetemple.com and you can follow @annetemplestudio on Instagram.

8. Australian eco-artist LEAH JUSTYCE BVA pop culture portraits are deeper than the image you see. Her chosen subjects have a subconscious connection that needs to come to the surface to be healed. Her use of roses is also symbolic to her journey, however, to the viewer her artwork will trigger experiences and memories that are personal to the viewer.
