46. BEN WARDLE is an established East Anglian landscape artist, with an MA in Fine Art, who lives in Snape, Suffolk. He has spent the last 20 years of his working life on horseback exploring some of the most beautiful countryside East Anglia has to offer. He feels that being in wild spaces has a tremendous effect on our mental health, and this psychological/ environmental link gives him a great source of creative scope. He is inspired by environmental philosophers and other creatives who enrich the East Anglian art scene and promote a more positive, healthy future for ourselves and our environment. 47. HEATHER BAILEY creates art inspired by the atmosphere of the places she has lived and travelled. African, Zimbabwean born and raised in South Africa, she lived in Pretoria before moving to Hampshire, UK with her family. Using acrylics and oils on canvas, she aims to create interest in colour and texture that communicates the landscape that she can see. Visit heatherbailey.art to view more of her work and follow @heatherbaileyartwork on Instagram. Commissions are accepted.

48. E.B.WATTS is an American artist living in Cheshire, England. She paints with acrylics on canvas. She has made a feature of continuing the composition around the sides. Her paintings lend a bold statement to any wall. Her inspiration comes from both England and America and around the world. Colour, imagination and technique are three dynamic qualities she achieves with each canvas. Visit ebwatts.com to find out more.

49. KRISTEN CAMPO FINE ART & DESIGN specialises in contemporary artwork that is unique, modern and stands the test of time. "It is imperative to assist a client in finding Art that speaks to them on a deeper level, where the heart does the talking. If we can achieve that, I know that we have found a work of art that will provide a lifelong love affair!" The gallery represents artists from all over the world. Featured is Netherlands native, Marissa Oosterlee. Her hyper realistic approach has garnered her International recognition and achievements.
