

THE WORLD OF INTERIORS

DECEMBER 2022 £4.99

1. UK artist SARAH CASWELL paints sunny, upscale floral portraits in a luscious 'contemporary baroque' style. Bold compositions are tempered with a romance and sensitivity. A Fellow of the Society of Botanical Artists, Sarah has exhibited at the RHS Chelsea Flower Show in London since 2011. Pictured is 'That Day You Were Perfect' 100cm x 200cm. Visit sarahcaswell.co.uk and follow @sarahcaswellpaintings on Instagram.

2. ERICA REILING is an award winning artist based in New York City working to help others heal through art. Her work revolves around themes of self-love, mindfulness, mental health and divinity. Pictured here is 'Treystu Mér' ("trust me" in Icelandic). This piece was painted to illustrate the balance of the sacred masculine and sacred feminine, and to evoke the mists and mysteries of the far North. Visit Ericareiling.com and follow @ericareiling on Instagram.

3. Internationally-awarded, VALERIE OSTENAK is an abstract/impressionist painter known for her atmospheric style using gold and silver leaf. Inspired by oceans and water, spectacular skies and flowers, Valerie's work is about transformation, movement, and energetic flow. Seen here is "Breakthrough", 24" x 24". Commissions welcome, to your size. Visit www.valerieostenak.com and follow @vostenakstudios on Instagram.

4. SIMON DAVIES is a British artist, working in oils, based in Dorset. He focuses mostly on portraiture, the human figure and still life, but occasionally also the local landscape. Pictured here is a portrait of his nephew (16x12 in.), painted in 2020. Available for commissions. See more at simondaviesart.com or follow @simondaviesart on Instagram.

5. LULU FIGINI is a London based intuitive artist, sensitive to nuances within human consciousness. Her work reveals subtle energies and emotional landscapes that may otherwise remain hidden. This artist uses a variety of mediums to create vivid and emotive portraits, driven by metaphysical observation. Visit moonlitkismet.com email LulusonlineshopUK@outlook.com or follow @moonlitlulufigini on Instagram.

6. Artist BRYAN RYLEY's work moves back and forth between painting, drawing and collage. This body of work entitled 'Bird Song' is driven by the social and physical issues our world faces today. Formed through system based methodologies, the works channel the physical properties of paint bodies to explore mood and spatial constructs. For more information about Bryan Ryley and his work, contact Allison Thompson of AT Art and Interiors, visit www.allisonthompsonstudio.com and follow @atartinteriors on Instagram.

7. GIA SABATINI is an American mixed media abstract artist based in upstate New York. Her work is influenced by music, thoughts and emotions. She uses the textures and colours to entice the viewer closer. The choice of materials allows for a play and juxtaposition that is found throughout the body of work. Visit www.giasabatini.com and follow @giasabatinstudio on Instagram.

8. Los Angeles based contemporary artist, SUSAN LIZOTTE, has exhibited her works both in the US and internationally. Creating landscape works, abstract maps and dramatic artworks of Los Angeles, her pieces flow and unfold themselves. Explore her varied collections online at www.susanlizotte.com and follow @susanlizotte on Instagram.

9. ELLEN VON WIEGAND is a California born, London based printmaker and painter. She depicts her own body, and explores the possibility of cultivating a sense of home within ourselves. Carefully chosen colour palettes and postures amplify a sense of tenderness, longing, and ease. Visit www.ellenvonwiegand.com email ellen@ellenvonwiegand.com and follow @ellenvonwiegand on Instagram.

10. KATHY STANLEY is a Jamaican-born artist living on the US West Coast. A visionary artist and ecopsychology educator, her acrylic paintings reflect meditative inner journeys of exploring the ecological self. She gravitates towards images that celebrate earth, the rising feminine spirit and invoke wholeness, joy and aliveness. Shown is 'Starry Queen'. Connect with her at SacredArtJourneys.com and follow @kstanleyart on Instagram.

11. DORRI BUCHHOLTZ is a sculptor in Atlanta, Georgia. She sculpts in clay and casts in composites and bronze. Her work explores the full spectrum of emotion. Using posture and gesture, she captures the rawness and beauty of our shared human experiences from joy to suffering. Dorri finds inspiration in the empowerment of women and the subject of much of her work is the female form. Pictured is 'All Out Of F's' in cold cast bronze, 14" x 7" x 15".
