THE WORLD OF INTERIORS

1. RUOTI ART & DESIGN was created based on the desire to combine creative thinking and scientific information. Founder of the company Maria Ruoti is a visual artist, researcher of law, and theologist. Materials used in commission work are of excellent quality, ecological and mostly crafted in Finland. The company donates 3% of its profit to Naisten Pankki, an organisation that supports the development, entrepreneurship and equality of women in Asia, Africa and Middle East. Visit ruotiartdesign.com and follow @ruotiartdesign on Instagram.

2. Los Angeles based contemporary artist, SUSAN LIZOTTE, has exhibited her works both in the US and internationally.

Creating landscape works, abstract maps and dramatic artworks of Los Angeles, her pieces flow and unfold themselves. Explore her varied collections online at www.susanlizotte.com and follow @susanlizotte on Instagram.

3. BRIAN KIRCHOFF is an abstract artist based in St. Louis, USA. His current series, 'Raw' invites viewers to reconsider what they believe to be conventionally beautiful. These works offer a new outlook on traditional themes. Visit www.briankirchoffabstracts.com and follow @brian_kirchoff_abstracts on Instagram.

4. PETERJAN PRINSEN is a Dutch contemporary artist, he has a passion for figurative paintings, enriched with abstract elements. He gets inspired by nature and people in everyday life. On large and small scale canvases, Peterjan searches for the beauty and tension in form and composition. Visit www.pjprinsen.nl or follow @peterjanprinsen on Instagram.

5. JORUNN MULEN is a painter living and working in Bergen, Norway. With an MA in Illustration and Authorial Practice from Falmouth College of Art, UK, Jorunn's visual narratives are concerned with persona and the complex stories, secrets and histories that manifest on the surface. Showing her work in London, LA, Tokyo and across Italy, Jorunn has received worldwide recognition for her alluring portraiture. Visit www.jorunn-mulen.com and follow @jorunnmulen on Instagram.

6. ELISABETH HOBDEN sells her work to support dwellingplaces.org, a wonderful charity working with street-connected children and slum families in Kampala, Uganda. Her current body of work - 'Out of my Hands' - celebrates both the power of light to create stunning blue cyanotypes and the excitement of pouring paint with deliciously unexpected and dramatic results. Visit www.elisabethhobden.co.uk to see more art or follow @lis.hobden on Instagram.

7. VALERIE WILCOX is an internationally shown and collected artist based in Los Angeles. Her mixed-media wall sculptures are part sculpture and part painting. Her practice combines the geometries of Minimalism with the spontaneous spirit of the New Casualists. Her works are always distinguishable by their unorthodox and joyful approach to colour and form. Visit www.valeriewilcox.com and follow @valeriewilcox_art on Instagram.

8. EUGENE THOMAS LRPS. Originally from South Africa, his photographs are minimalist landscapes, consisting of both the natural and the built environment, observing the places he visits with a keen eye for emotion and contemplation. He applies an emotive and documentary approach to his work and shoots mainly in black and white, preferring to leave you with an image and a narrative that invites your own interpretation and meaning. Visit www.ethomasphoto.com and follow @ethomasphoto1 on Instagram.

9. KELLY PATERSON is a Zimbabwean born, self taught artist living in London. Although artistic throughout school, it was not until 2014 that she discovered her passion for painting. Since then, Kelly has exhibited and sold her work in Zimbabwe, South Africa and London, where she relocated in order to pursue her dream of becoming a full-time artist. She takes commissions and the piece pictured is available for sale. Discover her work at www.kellypatersonart.wixsite.com/portfolio and follow @kellypatersonart on Instagram.

10. Australian eco-artist LEAH JUSTYCE BVA pop culture portraits are deeper than the image you see. Her chosen subjects have a subconscious connection that needed to come to the surface to be healed. Her use of roses is also symbolic to her journey, however, to the viewer her artwork will trigger experiences and memories that are personal to the viewer. Visit www.leahjustyceartgallery.com.au/ and follow @leahjustyceartgallery on Instagram.

11. SIMONE SCHOLES is an English artist who resides in Massachusetts. With her fashion and textile background often visually present in her work, Simone likes to apply her paint thickly, using familiar shapes and light to create different personas. Visit simonescholesart.com and follow @simonescholesart on Instagram.
